

PACIFIC COUNTY
EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

VISITOR SAFETY GUIDE

Welcome

-TO-

PACIFIC COUNTY

Know Your Risk. Know Your Response.

One simple system to keep you safe while you're here.

Pacific County is one of the most beautiful places on the Washington coast. Like all coastal destinations, a few things are worth knowing before you explore. This guide takes two minutes and could make all the difference.

LEVEL

1

STAY INFORMED

STAY INFORMED
GET READY

Things are developing.
Be aware, not alarmed.

No immediate action needed.

Stay tuned for updates.

WHEN THIS LEVEL APPLIES

- Tsunami watch
- Flood watch
- High wind advisory

LEVEL

2

TAKE ACTION

TAKE ACTION
GET SET

Something is happening.
Take specific steps now.

Follow
PCEMA alert.

Act now.
Be prepared.

WHEN THIS LEVEL APPLIES

- Tsunami advisory
- Flood warning
- Active wildfire nearby

LEVEL

3

EVACUATE
NOW

EVACUATE NOW GO

Immediate risk.
Leave right away.

Don't wait.
Don't gather belongings.

Leave immediately.

WHEN THIS LEVEL APPLIES

- Tsunami warning
- Mandatory evacuation
- Active wildfire threat

EVERY ALERT ANSWERS
THESE 4 QUESTIONS:

? What's happening?

Who does it impact?

> What should you do?

Where do you get updates?

CRITICAL SAFETY NOTICE

FEEL SHAKING NEAR THE COAST?
MOVE INLAND AND UPHILL IMMEDIATELY.

Don't wait for an alert. A local tsunami can arrive in minutes.

STAY CONNECTED

TEXT VISITORALERTS
TO 65513

FOR A 7-DAY ALERT SUBSCRIPTION

Get alerts: pcema.info

Follow us on Facebook:
Pacific County Emergency Management

BEFORE YOU LOSE CELL SERVICE — DO THIS NOW:

Sign up for free emergency alerts at pcema.info. Do it now — not during an emergency.

